Article 18: Regime of Declaration of Assets and Liabilities

Officials listed in Article 17 (Persons required to declare assets and liabilities) shall declare their assets and liabilities every two years, in early January and no later than the thirty-first of January. The declaration of assets and liabilities shall be done within 30 days after taking office. The second declaration shall be made in January of the third year and the last declaration of assets and liabilities shall be made within 30 days before leaving the office. In case the declaration cannot be made before leaving the office due to removal from office, declaration shall be made within 30 days after leaving the office.

Officials listed in Article 17 (Persons required to declare assets and liabilities), who are in office, shall declare their assets and liabilities first within 60 days after the anti-corruption institution is established as stipulated in Article 54 (The organization and functioning of National Council Against corruption and Anti-corruption Unit) of this law.

The formalities and procedures for declaration of assets and Liabilities shall be determined by the decision of the Anti-corruption Unit.

Article 19: Suspected non-listed person to declare assets and liabilities

After being investigated and receiving a decision from the Anti-corruption Unit, the suspect of corruption shall declare his/her assets and liabilities, in writing or electronic form, even though s/he is not included in the list to declare assets and liabilities as stated in Article 17 (Persons required to declare assets and liabilities) and Article 18 (Regime of Declaration of Assets and Liabilities) of this law.

The declaration of assets and liabilities of the above mentioned suspect shall comply with the formalities and procedures stipulated in Article 18 (Regime of Declaration of Assets and Liabilities) of this law to the final stage.

Article 20: Documentation of the assets and liabilities declaration

Personal documents of each individual's declaration shall be kept highly confidential. The document shall be made in electronic form, assigned with a code number and in two copies in accordance with a guideline determined by the Anti-corruption Unit. They shall be enclosed in separate envelopes, one to be kept by the individual concerned and the other by the Anti-corruption Unit. The enclosed envelope shall be sealed and signed by the Chairperson of Anti-corruption Unit, or a representative, together with the concerned individual's thumbprint.

The Chairperson of the Anti-corruption Unit can decide on the opening of the above envelope or electronic document for the sake of investigation as necessary.

The documents on declaration of assets and liabilities shall be kept within Anti-corruption Unit for ten years upon being received.

Procedures of opening envelopes or electronic documents of declaration of assets and liabilities shall be determined by the Anti-corruption Unit.

CHAPTER 5:

PROCEDURE FOR CORRUPTION OFFENCES

AND COMPETENT AUTHORITY

Article 21: Procedure for implementing corruption offences

Procedure for implementing corruption offences which is stated in the penal code and corruption offences which is stated in this law, shall be implemented as stated in the penal procedure code if there is no separate procedure in this law.

Article 22: Officials competent to investigate corruption offences

The Chairman, deputy chairpersons and officials of the Anti-corruption Unit who gain an advantage as judicial police official are empowered to investigate corruption offenses that are stipulated in this law and those in the penal code.

Other units that are aware of corruption offenses as stipulated in this law and corruption offenses stated in the penal code shall make corruption complaints to the Anti-Corruption Unit or its branch offices in the Capital or municipalities-provinces.

Article 23: Appointment of Anti-corruption Unit officials as judicial police

The Chairman and deputy chairpersons of Anti-corruption Unit are legally entitled to a status as judicial police officials in order to perform their duties.

Officials of Anti-Corruption Unit may be entitled to status as judicial police officials in accordance with the provisions in the penal procedure code.

The Chairman of Anti-corruption Unit takes charge of preparing list of officials of Anti-corruption who are entitled to status as judicial police officials through Prakas of the Minister of Justice.

Article 24: Oath

The Chairman, deputy chairpersons and officials of Anti-corruption Unit who are appointed as judicial police officials have to take an oath that they are honest in fulfilling their tasks in accordance with conditions stated in Article 63 (the oath by judicial police official) of the criminal procedure code.

Article 25: Investigative power of Anti-corruption Unit

Officials of Anti-corruption Unit, who are appointed as judicial police, shall conduct investigation of corruption offences in compliance with the provisions of penal procedure code and provisions in this Law.

Officials of Anti-corruption Unit, who are appointed as judicial police, take charge of investigating corruption offences. If during the course of a corruption offence investigation different offenses are found whose facts are related to the offence being investigated by Anti-corruption Unit, officials of Anti-Corruption Unit can continue the investigation of the offences to the final stage.

The Anti-corruption Unit cannot investigate other offences except corruption ones unless the unit is ordered by the court to do so.

The court can order the Anti-corruption Unit to undertake forensic inquiries in order to facilitate the judgement work of the court.

In the framework of these investigations and contradictory to article 85 (power of judicial police officials in flagrant offence investigation), article 91 (searching), article 94 (subpoena in the case of flagrant offence investigation) and the article 114 (subpoena for preliminary investigation) of the code of criminal procedure, the Chairman of Anti-corruption Unit or officially assigned representative has the duty to lead, coordinate and control the mission of those officials instead of the role of prosecutor to the point of arresting a suspect.

After the arrest, prosecutor exercises his power as stated in the provisions of the code of criminal procedure.

At the end of each investigation, the Anti-corruption Unit shall submit all facts to the prosecutor for further action in conformity with the provisions of the code of criminal procedures.

Article 26: Special Privileges of Anti-corruption Unit

The Chairman of the Anti-Corruption Unit can ask the concerned authority to suspend all functions of any individual who is substantially proven to be involved in a case of corruption offence.

If the suspect flees to a foreign country, the chairman of the Anti-corruption Unit can ask the competent authority to undertake an extradition in accordance with the provisions in force.

The Anti-corruption Unit can reserve some appropriate spaces, permanently or temporarily, as detention rooms, in accordance with the code of criminal procedure. When the Anti-corruption Unit cannot afford to have the appropriate permanent or temporary place for detention, the Anti-corruption Unit can ask the competent institution to detain the suspects arrested by the Anti-Corruption Unit.

Article 27: Privileges of Anti-corruption Unit related to monitoring

Being contradictory to article 105 (prohibition from wire-taping), and article 172 (wire taping ordered by the investigating judge) of the criminal procedure code, in the case there is clear hint of corruption offence, the ACU can:

1. Check and put under observation the bank accounts or other accounts which are described to be the same as bank accounts.
2. Check and order the provision or copy of authentic documents or individual documents, or all bank, financial and commercial documents.
3. Monitor, oversee, eavesdrop, record sound and take photos, and engage in phone tapping.
4. Check documents and documents stored in the electronic system
5. Conduct operations aimed at collecting real evidence.

The above measures shall not be considered as violations of professional secrets. The secret of banks shall not be served as justification for not providing evidence related to corruption offences in the provisions of this law.

Article 28: Privileges of ACU related to freezing an individual's assets

Upon the request by the chairman of ACU, the Royal Government can order the General Prosecutor of the Appeals Court or Prosecutor of the Municipal/Provincial Court to freeze the assets of individuals who commit offences stated in this law and corruption offences stated in the code of criminal procedure.

The individual assets, stated in the above first paragraph, includes the funds received or which forms asset belonging to the individual.

Article 29: Privileges of ACU in cooperation with public authority

The Chairman of the ACU can order public authorities, government officials, citizens who hold public office through election, as well as units concerned in private sector, namely financial institutions, to cooperate with officials of the ACU in the work of investigation.

The Chairman of the ACU can also ask the national and international institutions to cooperate in forensic examinations related to its investigation work.

Article 30: Seizure

The seizure shall be implemented in accordance with the code of criminal procedure.

Article 31: Procedures at criminal court

With regards to the criminal case related to corruption offence, the court, after receiving the complaint, shall open the trial as soon as possible.
